QUEENZY LUV is an outstanding, prolific singer-songwriter-musician with a huge following on the independent music scene. A renowned artist reared in a family of seasoned vocalists and musicians, she is no stranger to the music industry. Before the age of 10, she was already an accomplished performer; trumpet player in a school band, drummer/percussionist on a gospel album, piano player and recording artist. With credits like these as a young and prodigious talent, she is a force to be reckoned with. Finding her own way, she began a quest for authenticity and started experimenting with various genres of music. With a blended concoction of Jazz, Blues, R&B, and Soul, she developed her melodic signature style, 3rd Eye Soul. QUEENZY LUV's unrestricted essence and passion is captured through her exploration of old skool and new skool musical vibes, which has been compared to Erykah Badu, Jill Scott, Macy Gray, and Norah Jones. Her unique and smooth 3rd Eye Soul represents a universal appeal that explores life freely and takes a no-holds-barred approach to sensuality, spirituality, sexuality, fantasies, dreams, love, and music.
