In January/February of 2008, armed with a Macbook Pro and an arsenal of smooth hooks, they've recently joined forces with Long Island engineer Mike Watts of Vudu Studios (As Tall As Lions, Self Against City, Hopesfall, The Junior Varsity). Retro Ignite's style derives many influences ranging anywhere from current hot bands such as Metro Station, Panic At The Disco, The Cab, and Hellogoodbye to indie rock artists Modest Mouse and The Strokes.
