Sandy's unique songs -- delivered in a warm and lovely voice expressive of heart, heartache and humor -range in style from blues to bluegrass, country to reggae. This is a mature talent who has delivered a fine and beautiful work of art. 14 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Modern Country, POP: California Pop Details: Sandy is originally from Louisville, KY, growing up across the Ohio River in Jeffersonville, IN. She was active in music and theatre in high school and majored in voice in college before hitting the road with a band. She made quite a few trips to Nashville over the years; collecting such fans as Pete Drake, Harlan Howard, John Hurley, and Chet Atkins. Eventually ending up in Los Angeles, Sandy performed regularly and also worked in the movie industry until the recession of 1991 sent her packing back to Nashville, TN, where her sister helped her to get her life back on track. Though music was sort of relegated to the "back burner" at that time, Sandy never lost the desire to sing, write and share her music. The current production of "Late Arrival" is the realization of a very- very-long-time dream. The CD has delighted all who have heard it, including reviewer Robert K. Oermann (Sept 8, 2005 "Music Row" magazine). Don't miss "Black Velvet Elvis"!
