The Jimmies are kid sympathizers who work hard to rock their way into your world through terribly catchy and varied songs about things that people of all ages can relate to. Like um.bedhead.and.sneezing. Stuff like that. 15 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop, KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music Details: This much anticipated first album from New York City's favorite kidsters THE JIMMIES, has already met with wide acclaim and plenty of toe tapping. This infectious young group offers something for all ages with music running the gamut from rock, funk, pop and blues to reggae, hip-hop and even Dixieland "Its real music with kid-appropriate themes. Clever lyrics, catchy hooks and sophisticated melodies add up to an album full of songs you wont mind getting stuck in your head "Maybe my favorite band, kid's music or otherwise." -Leslie Zaslower, Nick Jr. Noggin

THE JIMMIES live in teeny-tiny houses 136 steps away from each other in the fragrant town of New York City. They take being silly VERY seriously. ASHLEY strongly believes in the possibility of TWO birthdays. When she's not being musical, she spends her time making VERY PROFESSIONAL and ridiculous voices for cartoons, commercials, books on tape and hold buttons. In her free time, she snacks extravagantly and writes her own bedtime stories; but always falls asleep before she finishes them. BRAD is not afraid of ice cream. In fact, Brad considers ice cream a close personal friend. He plays Mad Libs with wild abandon, tickles ivories for SUPER-BIG-TIME companies like VH1, Sony and Nabisco and does not keep his hidden talents particularly hidden. Brad is very (adjective) to be a part of The Jimmies. TIM is so dedicated to ROCKING OUT on the bass, that even a broken arm cannot stop him. He is terrifyingly good at being happy, playing Scatagories and eating cheese. When he's not dancing in his living room, he's busy making little maestros out of the elite toddlers of New York. MATT is from Texas, making him the only foreigner in The Jimmies. He is a ludicrously high jumper and can make any ol sit-around feel like a honky-tonky GOOD TIME. The Jimmies would like to state for the record that Matts inclusion into the band has absolutely NOTHING to do with the fact that he lives perilously close to the best little pancake house in New York City. Really. We swear. DAN is the most recent Dan to join The Jimmies. When he's not banging on things in Stomp, he spends his days using as much hot sauce as possible and coming up with more professional ways to say phrases like "those wavy lines" when referring to pro-tools tracks. He has a big, nice dog and apparently, he's really good at KUNG-FU, so we wouldn't mess with him if we were you.
