A trip taking you through crystalline harmonies to where the guitars sing of the days when poets were kings and kings were poets. 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Minstrel, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: In the small village of St. Maurice de Navacelles on the Larzac Plateau, the evening, held by a mutual friend, unwound into a celebration of melody and harmony and all-round good feeling. Mike had moved to France in the summer, finally escaping from a life unfulfilled in London where he worked as a musician. After a hectic summer helping at a retreat centre, he now was keen to meet other players. To this end he took his baby guitar to St. Maurice. Starry was the night Pascale had been hankering for a more peaceful, independent way of life. The kind of freedom hard to find in the cities of Paris and Montpellier. Her being, full of song, couldn't abide by the constraints of a good relationship gone bad, and a disillusion of playing in groups. On the wind that changes life When Mike played his songs Castles, Song of the Scorpion, Minstrel True, Your Broken Heart Will Mend, they spoke to Pascale and her response was immediate and captivating. Her silvery voice adding joie de vivre to the melancholic stillness of Mike's tunes. No-one present was left in any doubt that there was something happening here. By 3 in the morning the repertoire was exhausted. The two of them swapped details only to discover that they lived within a minute away from each other some things are just meant to be! As they started to work together they grew ever closer, and the music became the expression of their love. Finally they arrived at being Troubadlic. New compositions, new ideas, sweet and sour. Like Thursday Sad their first new song as Troubadlic. It's about turning a bad day around, like using the challenge of life to spur you onward. Songs of life with the insects of the Mediterranean humming in a chorus, singing for us. If you want to touch someone, sing from the heart then they'll get it!
