POP: New Romantic, WORLD: World Beat Details: Valentina Gaylord, Valentina's passion for music, dancing, performing, and the written word began at a very young age, as she has always been deeply passionate towards the creation of music and the profound effect that it has always had on her and her life's vision. Valentina is the Granddaughter of Sir Publius Lady Epiphanya Agius and was born to Edwin CarmenLena Agius of the Islands of Malta. A Noble Family to which Valentina honours with all that she is. She credits her family for her foundation, strength, courage, gentle nature, compassion, and fortitude. Valentinas Famillie Heritage has been traced back over 3500 years and she is the first, of two sets of twins, to reside in the United States of America. Valentina is married to Olympic Gold Medalist and Olympic Hall Of Fame Gymnast, Mitch Gaylord (MitchGaylord.com), a man that she truly devotes her love, heart, soul, and art too. Valentina, Sacred Places, Valentina Gaylord has Written, Co-Produced, Co-Composed, and Recorded her first Solo Album Titled "Valentina, Sacred Places" with Co-Producers Michael Stearns and Peter Rafelson, and Co-Composer Christopher Hoag. Valentina, Sacred Places", was inspired by Valentina's passion for true unconditional love and the art and creation of music. With Sacred Places, Valentina has evolved the ethereal sounds that embrace the soul and inspire the intellect. An anthology that defines the quintessence of the sacrosanct and intertwines the sensual international cultures of new dance music and the vivaciousness of life itself. One of Valentinas desires in creating this anthology was to transcend the eloquence of time and space and take her audience on a journey into the depths of their very soul, hopes, dreams, and desires. Sacred Places has brought many of Valentinas artistic and creative dreams to life by intertwining instruments and musicians from all across the world to create an album that unites the world via the vastly powerfully and limitless channel of music. In the composition titled In Shadows, Don Augustine, a Shaman from Ecuador, calls in the ancient spirits in a blessing for peace and love, which takes you through to the end of In Shadows with a secret passage in Morris Code. In the composition titled Compassion, the Venerable Geshe Tsultim Gyeltsen, inspired by His Holiness the XIV Dalai Lama Tenzin Gyatso, speaks to us all then chants in his native language of Tibetan. The Monks took part in this anthology as they felt deeply that their message of Compassion would reach the masses globally via the release of Sacred Places worldwide. Valentina, Sacred Places also includes the musical talents of Chilean Artist Ruben Ortiz of Sajama and Percussionist Rafael Padilla.
