

Mp3 Al Bauhof - Edge Of The World

DOWNLOAD HERE

Soft and drifting, warm and soothing new age-tinged instrumentals with acoustic guitar, strings and others. 5 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: Ambient, CLASSICAL: New Age Details: Al Bauhof is an independent musician from Cleveland, Ohio. He has been seriously involved in music for twenty years. Early musical roots steered his interests towards Folk/Acoustic and Rock genres. The range of his influences is broad in scope: CSN, America, Simon and Garfunkel, Al Dimeola, Strunz and Farah, Carlos Nakai, Jean-Luc Ponty. U2, Metallica, Rush, Fates Warning, Goo Goo Dolls. Led Zeppelin, the Who, Pink Floyd, the Doors, Black Sabbath. Randy Rhoads, Stevie Ray Vaughn, Jimi Hendrix. J.S. Bach, Vivaldi, Paganini, Malmsteen, Handel, Weiss, Parkening, Segovia. Bauhof has worked with some of Cleveland's best musicians in various projects. He has recorded material in numerous studios and performed in many local clubs and larger venues. Spending some time at KSU as a Conservation/Music major he studied Theory, Piano, Ethnomusicology, and Classical Guitar. This experience shed light and further influence towards his compositional style. Tracks from his debut EP, "Edge of the World", were incorporated into a few compilation discs. The Immortal Productions Studios comp and a national comp produced by Amerecord records exhibit his material. Amerecord's comp was distributed to 100 stations across the states. Bauhof's playing has received airplay and recognition in both local and online reviews. Currently, he is promoting a full-length CD entitled "Through the Darkness". This album is centered in a Vocal/Hard Rock genre. He is also part of a Hard Rock/Instrumental project performing in Cleveland. "a soothing album of ambient music; the names of the tracks are indicative of the feelings and expressions evoked by the music."

Roland Goity at OnlineRock

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: