This album is a collection of inspiring music, with lush and haunting melodies blended into a rich fusion of club music and new age. 17 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: New Age, ELECTRONIC: Experimental Details: Barry Bredemeier picked up the bass in 1991 after watching Marilyn Manson practicing in Ft. Lauderdale, FL. Barry's friend Kyle Hennrich, was a member of Collapsing Lungs and would practice next door to Marilyn Manson. Collapsing lungs soon followed and were signed with Atlantic Records. Barry moved on to Tampa and formed Clock Tower of Might, an alternative funk band. One year later he joined Post War Children. Barry's style and direction have changed, he is now releasing his first solo album String Theory. This album is an awesome and inspiring mixture of club music, new age music and classical soundtrack. He is currently working on a second album due out in December.
