POP: Power Pop, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: "Dene Marie has such a great voice. Lyrics you can relate to with music that moves you. I just can't get enough of this." Melanie - Rebel in Magenta "Jomei, obviously a professional singer, seduces her listeners with a throaty, passionate delivery of sexy lyrics." Eric Myers - Gods of Music "Dene Marie Jomei is a very gifted singer. Her powerful vocals are at the center of her alternative sound." Anna Maria Stjarnell - Collected Sounds-Women in Music "...eclectic brand of pop that draws upon a variety of styles, intonations, musical yard sales, and alternative-indie-acoustic peculiarities that demonstrates quite an ability." Ben Ohmart - The Muse's News From tender and sensitive to purely volcanic in the blink of an eye, Dene Marie Jomei is truly dynamic. This powerhouse songstress is not one to hold back the emotive lava. Her music is emotionally unforgettable. Pop, funk, rock, blues, country and folk influences are all evident in Dene Marie's passionate and expressive debut CD. Her musical inspirations include Heart's Ann Nancy Wilson, Chrissie Hynde of the Pretenders and Melissa Etheridge to name a few. This is edgy - but sweet - power pop/rock that speaks to your soul. Originally from Seattle, award winning singer/songwriter/musician Dene Marie Jomei has had a life-long love for music. From classical piano lessons at the age of three to majoring in music in college, Dene Marie has traveled a winding road of self discovery in music. After working as a creatively unsatisfied recording engineer, she finally made her move to the other side of the glass and began writing and singing her own material. Currently residing in Los Angeles, Dene Marie has built a large and loyal following with her unique brand of power pop/rock. This talented ASCAP writer and publisher is receiving radio airplay on stations across and even outside the country, licensed her music for British television, and is a popular artist on high-traffic internet music sites where her music has reached Number 1 on several charts. She's also been featured in the BUZZ section of Los Angeles Magazine.
