I enjoy down to earth people, and great conversations. I am inspired by people like 2pac and other down to earth people that went through the struggle. I enjoy writing my life stories because I believe the world should know. Being that my mother has been gone since I was three, I have learned to depend on God for soulful wisdom. Knowing that life is truly a blessing, knowing that God had healed my pain when my head was down, and even when I'm in pain God sees me through. I enjoy traveling, and exploring my mind and understanding that the sound in me is from me and stories about me. And life, nothing is guarantee so I keep my faith and God and me. I enjoy movies and will be in many upcoming such as Boss N Up, I enjoy heart moving movies. You can downlaod my sweet sound of victory on iTunes. Sounds From The Hood available now. I hope that you enjoy real stories of life, its worth it for that price, and one thing to remember when no one is around and your down, even stressed out.
