Modern praise and worship. 11 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, ROCK: Modern Rock
Details: In the summer of 2004, Jessy released his first full length worship album featuring 11 original songs written and performed by himself. With the help of producer Ralph Stover (Plus One, Maranatha praise band, Peculiar People Band, Point of Grace), Jessy created a powerful body of work. Similar to such worship leaders as Matt Redman, David Crowder, Martin Smith of Delirious, and Chris Tomlin. The CD, entitled A Thousand Tongues, is intensely passionate and reaches into the soul of the listener. Jessys heart and his style break down the generation gap, attracting people of all ages, as his lyrics challenge them to worship God in honesty and truth. As well as original music, Jessy is also experienced in leading hundreds of other worship songs such as God of wonders, Now that Youre Near, Better is One Day, My Glorious, and Here I am To Worship. Traveling with his own worship band or solo, Jessy has led conferences and services for all ages throughout the United States and Mexico. He considers it an honor to be used in such a powerful way as he ushers the church into the presence of God.
