Rootsy acoustic Christian worship music 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, ROCK: Americana Details: For mudhouse, poignant lyrics, rootsy acoustic music, and a gospel driven sincerity tell the story of love, faith, death, loss, and hope. This acoustic duo from the east coast uses simplicity and truth to suggest that there is more to life than what we see, do, or say. All across the world people need to know that they are loved. Todd Miller and Brian Spahr are two long-time music and ministry veterans. Both have travelled and performed extensively for crowds of all sizes, and for people of all ages. They have joined together to share their passion for the Gospel and their desire to lead people in vibrant, meaningful worship. Todd (who also plays with the Christian band, Echelon) loves good music, good food, fly-fishing and Jesus. Todd lives in Virginia with his wife, Jennifer, and son, Sean. Brian lives in Annapolis, MD (with his wife Michelle and their dog millie) and he is studying to be a pastor at Gettysburg Lutheran Seminary. When he is not reading books on theology, he can usually be found writing papers about them, but for fun he loves listening to tunes over iced coffee at the local coffee shop, walking in the woods, eating spicy foods, watching cheesy reality TV, and reading books on theology.
