"Souls/Island" is sort of a sequel of "Entities". It has a dark melodic sound to it and the whole EP plays almost in the form of a story. This EP is very hard to find as a physical release (CD) and is a must have for any fan of this band. 11 MP3 Songs in this album (36:51) ! Related styles: ELECTRONIC: Electro, ELECTRONIC: Industrial People who are interested in Depeche Mode Apoptygma Berzerk Lether Strip should consider this download. Details: Since more than a decade, the german industrial/dark-electro band Project Pitchfork delights thousands of fans worldwide with a unique mixture of danceable beats, breathtaking melodies and deep lyrics. With 11 albums, 6 eps, and more compilation appearances than you can shake a stick at, Project Pitchfork have reached the status of "masters of electro-goth music". Since 1994 every album released by the band entered the Official German Charts, and they have been nominated twice for an Echo Award. In 2002, the french director Jrme de Missolz was so fascinated by Project Pitchfork's music, performance and philosophy, that he featured the band in his movie "Zone Reptile". Beside a 12 minutes concert footage shot especially for the film, the music of Project Pitchfork is present throughout the whole motion picture. The lyrics of the songs are often used to express the main character's emotional inner world, becoming an important part of the story-telling process. The band is also very famous for their energy and intensity on stage: their live-shows are known to be legendary. They toured extensively and played hundreds of shows all over the world, exciting the crowds in countries like Canada, Brazil, Argentina, the United States of America, Norway, Sweden, England, Belgium, The Netherlands, Poland, Spain, Italy, Greece, France, Latvia, The Russian Federation, Austria, Switzerland and of course Germany.
