These contemporary pop songs are masterfully produced in a range of styles, beautiful and fun that celebrate the gifts in all of us: strength, beauty, courage, compassion, hope, joy, talent, imagination, reverence, wisdom, love and faith. 14 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop, POP: Today's Top 40

Details: The Twelve Gifts of Birth CD, original songs inspired by Charlene Costanzo's book, is not typical children's music. This stunning musical production combines the angelic voice of Susan Kay Wyatt with an adult and children's chorus, inspiring and healing the listener on an epic musical journey that explores the gifts we all possess. Along this journey are meditative pop sounds and exciting percussive tracks, including gospel, hip-hop, calypso and traditional jazz. This music is for every child and the child in every adult. Susan Kay Wyatt is a dynamic vocal artist and songwriter dedicated to inspiring adults and children alike with her message of empowerment and passion for love and life. Her previous works include Speak the Word and Something Sacred Here. Now she teams up with neuroscientist Rob Peters and music therapist Kasi Peters to co-write and co-produce The Twelve Gifts of Birth. Together they share a common passion and the urgent need to spread the message that we are all born with the gifts of strength, beauty, courage, compassion, hope, joy, talent, imagination, reverence, wisdom and faith.
