BLUEGRASS UNLIMITED REVIEW: THE CANTRELLS-THE HEART WANTS WHAT IT WANTS- [July 2005 Issue] Banjoist Bela Fleck called Al and Emily Cantrell the "best vocal duet since Roy Rogers and Dale Evans." The Cantrells have made numerous appearances on Mountain Stage and were also featured in the motion picture A River Runs Through It. The heart of this duo are the sensuous vocals of Emily, and this latest collaboration features many of her compositions along with the pop music classic, "Autumn Leaves," the folksy "Take This Hammer," and Joni Mitchell's whimsical "You Turn Me On I'm A Radio." Throughout the 11 performances, "The Heart Wants What It Wants" beams with brilliance and sincerity and is assured to boost the Cantrells' ever-growing reputation. (Sombrero Records, P.O.
