Dark Americana mixing Nick Cave and Steve Earle 12 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Alt-Country, COUNTRY: Americana Show all album songs: Deseronto Songs Details: Brewing their very own version of Americana noir as an improbable mix between Steve Earle and Nick Drake, White Sands started as a solo project from singer/songwriter Pascal Hallibert (Grote Prijs van Nederland 2001 finalist, Templo Diez, Praise the Twilight Sparrow), quickly moving to a duo format with multi-instrumentist Hans Custers and reaching the Grote prijs van Nederland finals in late 2004. After playing Crossing Border 2005 and several dates in Canada and the USA, they released their debut EP 'Alma' in 2006, garnering great reviews from the Dutch music media. With drummer Daan van Dienst completing the core lineup, White Sands evolved towards a fuller but always intimate sound, dedicated to their cinematic tales of long-gone hopes and redemption set in half-dreamt desert towns and myth-laden megalopoles. Full-length debut expected in september 2007.
