Details: A BRIEF BACKGROUND Sarah Peacock was born into a musical family, so it isn't surprising that so many of her fans have said she was "born with a song." She began taking piano lessons at the ripe old age of 4, got her first guitar at 11, and began teaching herself the drums at age 13. She wrote her first song at 14 and hasn't stopped since. Sarah grew up being heavily involved with music at school and at church. She has an extensive background in classical voice, musical theatre, and music theory. In junior high and high school, Sarah performed in plays, talent shows, won governor's honors, scholarships, and even performed in a touring Broadway production. Having developed a passion for music throughout childhood, Sarah decided to "get serious" about her career as an artist in 2001 when she moved to Nashville, TN. She developed her talent as a vocalist, songwriter, and performer at Belmont University and graduated in 2005 with a bachelors in commercial music. Sarah Peacock was signed to indie label, Maze Records in 2006. Since then she has been diligently writing songs, touring, recording, and developing her fan base as a singer/songwriter in cities all over America. With the ability to play every instrument, Sarah is an extremely well rounded musician and performer. Some of her fans have said, "she feels music on a different level, and you can tell on stage." It is not typical for an artist to produce their own album. However, despite the typical scenario, Sarah solely produced her entire debut album with clear focus and direction. Sarah currently lives in her hometown of Atlanta, GA, but will be moving back to Nashville, TN in May of 2009. She will be bringing a suitcase full of new songs with her and is ready to share them with the Nashville music scene and with her fans all around the world. PRESS RELEASE With a positive and melodic approach to songwriting, Sarah Peacock is an artist quickly generating a buzz in the music industry with the release of her debut album, Straight For Your Heart. Having performed over 200 dates on the road since 2006, Sarah is winning over audiences in cities all over America with her catchy tunes and charming personality. Maze Records in Nashville, TN proudly presents to mainstream music a fresh, new sound with Sarah Peacock. Fusing memorable Beatle-esque melodies with powerhouse vocals reminiscent of Hearts Ann Wilson, you will find it hard to believe such a big sound coming from such a little person. Her most recent performances promoting the release of her album have received excellent reviews from music industry publications. I felt that Sarah was very outgoing, the kind of person that doesnt know a stranger. Her songs were well written and had meaning. Her look, her entire act for lack of a better word has commercial appeal. Sarah is ready to sell records. --SiN, Senior Contributor The Silver Tongue "Whether you see her show or meet her in person, Sarah Peacock will make an impression. She is a down to earth person with superstar stage presence. Her songs are well written, her musicianship is amazing and her voice will knock you out." --Glen Pridgen Angry Face Music 7:30 Club The excitement has been continually brewing from Sarahs fans over the new album. Over the course of several years, Sarah has written, developed, produced, and recorded these tracks with honesty, devotion, excellence, and passion. Once you listen, you will see that Sarah is an artist quickly on her way to success! Straight For Your Heart will be released on April 18, 2009 on Maze Records. --Lee Gamble, High Note Partners Inc.
