Electronic Trip the light fantastic music or post punk might be better. 7 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Trip the light fantastic, ELECTRONIC: Soundscapes War Drum Songs Details: Is it sick is it industrial. It's all astir where you're from A Best Blue live in a Yorkshire village that used to be known for its coal industry, now the identify is in ruins, a tatty, nasty left over which has seen better days. The old are dying from the damage done to them by the mines and the most of the young are blank eyed drug addled nihilists with no hope. And somewhere in the middle of all this is A Best Blue, working alone in an old pit house with a leaky roof, praying not to get mugged. Well "The War Drum" there first outing into the world of music in 10 years so let's just say this project is a labour of love. About A Best Blue Well there's me, a PC and a number of instruments and a lot of time but not much money involved in the creation of A Best Blue. The name came to me when I was writing one of the tracks, which at the time was called "something blue" but after adding an extra track, which as it happened change the direction of the composition, I thought to my self "now it's a better blue" and at that point the problem of what to call the band was solved.
