Or rather what's often referred to as, "Sophisticated Country Funk." Apple Pie Hopes. Music for all ages occasions! Our audience has ranged from prostitutes passerby's on the corner of 47th International to 8-11 year old children at local daycare centers. We are yet to meet an audience that we don't charm into singing, oohing yodelling along to our beloved interpretation of the Sugar&Gold hit, "This Kinda' Lover." (myspace.com/sugarandgold) We leave onlookers in stitches with wholly improvised monologues cleverly sprung into the middle of a tune with content that meanders from fruit roll-up cunnilingus to birthing super-human offspring in a barn-yard laboratory. Apple Pie Hopes will make you smile, sing dance right along with us. A display of true Americana, pre-dating democracy post-dating the Apocolypse...a modern-day comic book in song. Your entertainment is guaranteed. And what's for dessert? Apple pie of course!
