The stories are more silly than scary and remind folks of "Fractured Fairytales". 5 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Storytelling, KIDS/FAMILY: Kid Friendly

Details: Dave Mampel aka Daffy Dave has been performing professionally since 1992 and has been a popular hit with family audiences in the San Francisco and Bay Area. Daffy Dave has been voted Number One Children's Entertainer in the Bay Area by the readers of Bay Area Parent Magazine every year since 2000. His silly songs and stories on his CDs have received positive reviews in The School Library Journal and Booklist Magazine. News Flash: Daffy Dave was just announced a 2005 winner for Best Song for Pre-Schoolers: "The Hop, Hop Song" and Best Song for Ages 5-8: "Red Light, Green Light" by the Children's Web Music Awards. These songs are judged by kids from all over the world. These songs will be featured on XM Satellite Radio Children's Music program, "Pickleberry Pie Radio". These songs will be included on Daffy Dave's upcoming "Silly Party Songs" CD in early 2006. The Booklist March 15, 2004 Daffy Dave's Get Down with the Clown! revealed the clown side of the versatile performer; this CD showcases his storytelling talents. The included stories and songs work for any occasion but seem particularly appropriate for Halloween (one song specifically celebrates the chilly joys of that night). The collection features two stories, two songs, and a rhyming tale about the title character. Dragons and witches predominate in the leisurely paced selections. Daffy Dave has fun with anachronisms and seems to enjoy tweaking fairy tale conventions. The stories won't give youngsters scary thrills, but they do raise the silly quotient. The songs about Halloween and nighttime shivers make their points with warm humor.
