A wildly inventive movie made of sound about a gay kid growing up in San Francisco in the 1950s and early 60s. Winner of the Stonewall Society Literary Performer Award for 2002 and hailed by East Bay Express as one of the ten best CDs of 2002. 13 MP3 Songs SPOKEN WORD: Audiobook, SPOKEN WORD: With Music Details: It's all about Marilyn, muscle mags, movie musicals, and me! It's a funky tsunami of words and sounds coming at you at breathless breakneck speed. It's a rampageous verbal riot of street level history careening and crashing through a half century of social change, self discovery and fashion blunders. It's a racy resume of a randy kid (Echo Magazine calls him "a gay Holden Caulfield") coming of age in San Francisco before the Love That Dare Not Speak Its Name had found a voice. It's queer! It's here! It's SEX AND MAYHEM PART ONE and you'd better tuck the little tykes into bed before popping this puppy into the CD player,'cause its bark is as fun as its bite. ALL HOMOPHOBES, FAG BASHING CLOSET CASES AND FOCUS ON THE FAMILY LUNATICS ARE HEREBY WARNED! Everybody else is welcome to check out the sound files suitable for a general audience. The unexpurgated hour long version shipped to you in a plain brown wrapper is rated R for Raunchy and Really funny. It's Part One, and by the end of the hour you'll be dying to know what happens next, which you CAN find out by ordering Part Two, which is now available. Just click the link to your left. Then stay tuned for the rest of the series, coming to you right here every six months (or thereabouts) until the whole tawdry tale is told. Guaranteed to make you giggle, gasp, and even blubber a bit. It's SEX AND MAYHEM PART ONE For a good time order one today!
