Details: I have been a guitar player most of my life, but it was my involvement with the Mountain Gorilla Veterinary Project that motivated me to put some music together and record it. I consider this a very unique project, a collection of music from various places that just made sense in regards to being put on one CD. Personal favorites that make you smile as well as feel sad, a memorable piece from Peter Jackson's remake of "King Kong", a haunting tribute to the late great Dian Fossey and one of the best performances ever done with a slide guitar on Billy Stapleton's interpretation of "Amazing Grace". The DVD has great footage, interviews and an inspirational slideshow with some of the music from the CD. Folks from all walks of life should enjoy what they hear and see and know that by purchasing "Gorillas in Our Midst" that they are also supporting one of the most innovative and effective conservation groups in the world, the Mountain Gorilla Veterinary Project.
