Congratulations to "Charlie" and "Melissa" on each winning a free CD for being the first callers. It was a very cool experience the people are very good people and everyone in studio wanted a CD after I finished performing, but I only had two copies with me. I left them to fight over them. They are such good people. Their radio station doesn't even play my genre but they gave me air time anyway because they liked what they heard on the CD. God bless you guys!
