Smooth Rhythm and Blues music for steppers 14 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Rhythm Blues, EASY LISTENING: Crooners/Vocals Details: No history of the Chicago soul scene would be complete without a chapter on Chicago born and bred Marzette Griffith. As the main singer in the group Essence (Epic/Cleveland International), Marzette propelled the groups singles "Sweet Fools" and "I Ain't Much But I'm All I Got" into the Billboard Top 100 charts in the late 70's. Since becoming a solo artist, Marzette has spent much of his time expanding his career as a singer, songwriter, producer/arranger and dancer. (He has appeared in movies; "Love Jones"). In the summer of 2000, working with Grammy Award Winner Jim Peterik, Marzette contributed vocals to Jim's World Stage project performing the song "Vehicle" and "Tossing and Turnin" as well as releasing his first solo album on Peterik's World Stage label. At that time with his new release "Are You Going My Way", Marzette once again teamed up with long time friend and collaborator Peterik to share writing and producing credits to create one of the most anticipated releases of the year. The first single "Nobody By That Name" became an instant club and radio hit during the summer of 2002, and with the 2005 release of his new hit single "Nothing But A Party", Marzette expanded his popularity to Washington, DC, Atlanta, Detroit, and Milwaukee. Marzette is firmly establishing that once again his sensual and powerful mix of soulful vocal and R&B beat is a sound that keeps the dance floor full. Now after finally signing with a new label (Baby Brown Records) that has his best interests in mind, Marzette is ready to leap to the Big time with his new CD entitled And Now, Marzette. The CD has 16 brand new songs written and produced by Marzette and continues the sensual smooth style Marzette has mastered over the years. Today, Marzette has been very busy performing in Washington, DC, and other locales. He worked with the Bill Pollack Orchestra Band where he had the pleasure performing on the show with Shania Twain, at the 2006 Kansas City Speedway. Marzette is a multi-talented superstar in the making, he continues to be on the front line and behind the scene discovering and producing new talent. He is a star in all respects. Always professional, always in tune and always "The consummate entertainer!"
