

Mp3 Steve Goldberg - How I Remember Them

DOWNLOAD HERE

Melodic, literate, quirky, guitar-based indie pop, informed by the likes of Weezer, The Beatles, and The Decemberists. 7 MP3 Songs

POP: Beatles-pop, POP: Quirky Details: Born into a family of Chechnyan goat farmers and orphaned at an early age by a tragic encounter with a marauding pack of feral dogs, Steve Goldberg was soon taken in by a kind-hearted band of gypsies with an unabiding love for 60s guitar pop. Reared on a steady diet of The Beatles and Simon and Garfunkel, young Steve soon stowed away on a cargo freighter and braved the treacherous journey across the ocean to Philadelphia. He worked odd jobs at the docks there, biding his time until he could afford an instrument of his own. When that glorious day finally arrived, he bade farewell to manual labor and began making his bread as a travelling troubador, performing the songs of his youth for indifferent bar patrons. In a short while Steve began to spin yarns of his own creation: whimsical tales of lost love, frustrated penguins, and brave knights-errant. But after finding himself framed for murder as part of a nefarious plot hatched by a local bookie as payback for an old debt, Steve was forced to flee America or face capture. His travels have brought him to London, where he has begun a new musical odyssey.

Preston the Penguin | To Jane Gallagher | Historiography | Hindsight Guitars, vocals: Steve Goldberg Drums: Jordan Bross Bass: Eric Eden Engineered by Eric Eden Produced by Eric Eden, Fumiya Yamamoto, and Steve Goldberg

Crestfallen Acoustic guitar, vocals: Steve Goldberg Electric guitar: Jon Kaufman Drums: Travis Schermer Bass: Jeff Saretsky Trumpet: Russell Scharf Engineered by Harold Walls Produced by Harold Walls, Fumiya Yamamoto, and Steve Goldberg

The Battle of Agincourt Guitars, vocals, glockenspiel: Steve Goldberg Produced by Steve Goldberg and Fumiya Yamamoto

The Book of Love Guitar, vocals: Steve Goldberg Produced by Steve Goldberg All words and music by Steve Goldberg, except The Book of Love by Stephen Merritt Design by Andrew D. Babb

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: