RB, Rap, Balads, Instrumentals, Pop...Everything. 11 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: Every poet needs someone to open his heart,...Someone who loves him/her unconditionally,...someone who learns to enjoy basketball just for you...Someone who is so interested in you that they are interested in the things you like just because you like them. I was fortunate to find my someone...She knows who she is...I've told her I love her a thousand times. When a songwriter is first struck by love, it feels like he can't express himself enough...The experience is characterized by composing hundreds of poems for his loved one, followed by dozens of gifts and many romantic dinners. The song "I Love You For Being You" is partially about a person who is attempting to explain his unconditional love. Doubt is the factor that makes many of us insecure regarding whether our loved one is on the same page or not. Do they love us as much as we love them?...If they do, we might celebrate by dedicating "My Baby's Back" to them... If they're not,...we might get sad and wonder "If This Ain't The Blues?", what is it?!!! When we really love someone, we get excited "Every Time We Touch"...and when we want to give that person each and every part of ourselves, we say, take "All Of Me"! There are times when we argue, fuss and fight and one of us has to back down for the sake of preserving our love and say "Baby It's Me", it's not you...I'm the one who needs to change, not you! When we lose that special love we might ask him/her... Do you still read "My Letters"... This is my sixth album and in the interest of mixing things up and representing a variety of subjects, I wrote a song entitled "Tough Guys" to explain that violence is unnecessary even when you live in an area that breeds negative behavior. The song is not autobiographical although I say I am originally from the ghetto...and I am from the ghetto but I did not participate in gang wars because I was never a member of any gang. Contrary to popular belief...You can live in the ghetto but the ghetto doesn't have to live in you! I include at least one instrumental on each CD

for the satisfaction of my fans who enjoy kicking back and listening to smooth music...The instrumental featured on this album is entitled "A Lone Saxophone". Back to the love songs on this special album written just for you to dedicate to someone you care about or just listen to yourself...The song "Let's Stay Inside" is about just that..."Let's Stay Inside" and kiss and hug and keep each other warm instead of going outside to the cold, cruel world...Then,... When we convince our loved one to stay inside and dance...let's "Get Busy"!!!! Well, that covers the eleven songs from my sixth album... I would like to let you know that I receive great satisfaction when I receive email from my fans who express that they can't wait until the release of my next album! When you sell your music all over the world, you would think a fan's letter would be just another fan's letter... but I am touched every time an admirer contacts me...I hope I make you feel as good as you make me feel! Contact me as often as you like,...I love it!!! I can always be reached at MusicCDcluB !!! Please let me know if there is a subject I can cover in a song for you...My main focus is to write songs for you...My music is for your satisfaction...My happiness comes when you are pleased. I attempt to compose songs of many styles on each of my albums...I want to entertain people of varied musical and lyrical tastes. It is said that "You can't please all the people all the time"...well,...I try...I have been told that there is at least a couple of songs on each of my albums for everyone...That makes me feel good...It lets me know that I am fulfilling my goal.
