Pop rock with hints of punk edge. 18 MP3 Songs in this album (52:05) ! Related styles: POP: Pop/Rock, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: Band Biography Land Safely on the Ground is the third studio release from The Divide based in Brookfield/Danbury, CT. It is available for purchase on cdbaby and digstation soon to be released on itunes.com, rhapsody.com, napster, and amazon.com. The CD was mastered by Gary Fulton, Sonic House Post Productions, Roxbury, CT and took 12 months to complete. The album title Land Safely on The Ground, was created from the inspiration of young Hollywood themes. The CD includes pop/rock tracks Shes Gone Hollywood, Vanity Fare and Socialite Heiress. There's a bit of satire on young Hollywood in these tracks says Steve Ruffler, lead vocals/bass guitarist. These songs poke a bit of fun on how TV viewers are bombarded with reality TV everyday and how advertising is the driving force to sell products through these shows in a fun, exciting way, says Steve. Mixing pop/rock songs with a punk edge is the foundation for the CD. However, the band is no stranger to writing catchy commercial sounding ballads. Dedicated the 5th song on the CD showcases the bands talent with softer Crosby, Stills, Nash Young like harmonies. Anthony Tabacco Jr., drummer/backing vocalist, adds finely tuned harmonies. We spent a lot of time on this project, but the results were well worth it as it took our original music to another level, says Anthony. George Hanlon, lead guitarist, fires away catchy guitar hooks with emotional melodies making his guitar sound like violins at times on the catchy song Madhouse and the rock opera sounding Jack Tabitha. What sounds like it could have been done on a synthesizer was recorded purely with Georges guitar. We recorded this CD only using guitars says George. As a modern rock band, we wanted to stay true to our live sound as much as possible. The Divide is a house band at Molly Darcys, Danbury CT and plays for audiences of 500+ each show. The band performs at Paul Newmans Hole In The Wall Gang Camp fundraising events annually. The group has also been a supporting act for The Commitments from Ireland and Black 47. The Divide placed 3rd in an open up for Bon Jovi contest at Jones Beach on NY Radio Station Z100. Venues played include Toads Place, The Chance, The Bitter End, CBGBS, New Music Caf and more.
