SMR-10/14/06 NYC Where do you stand in the war between the Natural World and the Synthetic World? Why does everything have to be Hyped, Hollywooded and Madison Avenued! Aren't you tired of seeing all those shows about Billionaires and Super Models. Who really cares about that stuff! What about some respect for the regular man- the real hero who is not represented! Take a picture of our world today. Compare it to the world of before. Are we any better than our ancestors! Has Man really made any progress? Are we a scientific and technological mess? Will our planet still be here in future! How do you feel living in our nuclear age? What challenges will the people of tomorrow face? Maybe some of the answers can be found in this music. This is some of what The Exploration Project is all about. Now comes the 8th Cd of THE EXPLORATION PROJECT-SYNTHETIC WORLDS. All of our other cds are always sold through CDBABY.COM.
