Just your typical high energy world, roots and original music performed on mandolin, tuba, didgeridoo, accordion, more brass, lots of percussion and hand-made instruments. 17 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, WORLD: Celtic Details: Below is a review of the 'HANDY' CD written by an anonymous fan. A CD with all of the spectrum of moods of the musical palette going way beyond eclectic and a few pages further than simply innovative. As the CD spins you will find the moods and spirits gathered together in the room pleasingly satisfied and cured of whatever ails them A wonderful journey through many places and spaces orchestrated within a energetic, unifying style highlighted with excellence and enthusiasm. This recording is tempered by a clever understanding of the complex dynamics of any listening audience. The band makes clever use of transition, interlude and introduction as it goes from place to place within the musical minds of a diverse audience. The music is presented as a personal gift rather than simple recitation. The band does not merely play in styles, they live them and subtly flavor the music with their own living essence. Innovative musical textures created by exotic and invented instruments makes this recording a crisp and refreshing contribution to the musical world.
