Mahamudra Tantra, Peace and love for all sentient beings, Universal Love and Compassion 15 MP3 Songs JAZZ: World Fusion, ROCK: 70's Rock Details: Mahamudra tantra is the sanskrit word which means Union of Bliss and emptiness, the very essence of Buddhist tantric meditation. Buddhaboy and friends many of whom are from the Bowienet community share a common vision of music, the world and that all sentient beings be cherished. We care deeply for Tibetan people and wish for their homeland to become their once more. We care for all life and all beings no matter how large or small. We must cleans ourselves in each life to avoid samsara as we live again and again we wish for long life for all as we correct all things. We pray for the High Line Festival curated by David Bowie and send our messages out in song as prayers for many various aspects of creation and life. We pray that compassion enters the hearts of all men and women in the coming of a new world. World Peace starts in the minds of men and women and will ripple out to the Universe. You will discover many of the themes on this album to direct themselves toward peace love devotion understanding compassion. This is the flavour of Prayers for the High Line by Buddhaboy and friends. Buddhaboy is a an advocate for World Peace. Sailors song is a song we composed specifically for David Bowie to display our sharing of visions through the medium of music. Buddhaboy also sculpts large stone and the same messages are conveyed in granite. Just a different medium see sonicbids.com/stonesculpting
