Groovy, mostly instrumental music, rooted in funk, with a little ethnic and ambient touch. Listen and go to musical escape. 14 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Funk, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: The rhythm of modern living is merciless, oftenly uncatchable for live beings whose heartbeats reflects more peaceful lifestyle, with less dramatic business and life changes. These two rhythms, rhythm of ambition and inner rhythm, is sometimes imposible to harmonize, usually body or spirit suffers. Sometimes one has need to escape from daily jobs and obligations, and get closer to nature. Such escape could be of different kind, it could be listening to the music which differs from that in our cars, interrupted with commercials, while we are in hurry to get on time to our jobs. Different from that which is bombarding us on television, day by day. Even the musicians have such wishes, from time to time, to shift from reality, from music which is making and representing them professionally successful, but intimately dissatisfied. In such times the albums like BU ESCAPE are happening, showing other side of creativity, which is melody, composition and similar stuff, usually not connected with playing bass guitar only. The music on the album is mostly instrumental, rooted in funk, groovy, with touch of ethnic and ambient elements. All components of Bus music career are here, but assembled in different way. Bu (pronounce butch) is well known bass player and musician in his home town Zagreb, capital of Croatia. He is making for living by doing some session work in recording studios and TV stations, leading his own group The Buersi. As steady member of various rock and funk bands, Bu participated in more than 15 released cds and 2 dvds, presenting him in typical bass player role, but capable to step out and play some driving solo. In his early twenties, Bu spent three years in Paris, France, studying music on private jazz school called Institute Art Culture Perception (art director was well known double bass player from USA, Mr. Alan Silva), and playing all kinds of music, with musicians coming from Greece, Camerun, Tunis, Morrocco, France etc. That made him open to people and music from all around the world. And it will stay like that forever. Give him a call, maybe you can participate in common musical escape.
