Soulful american melodies in a folk/gospel setting. 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, ROCK: Acoustic
Details: In January, 2000, Dentel released the CD Walls of Stone on Vortex Records. On Walls of Stone, Dentel explores a more intimate side of his songwriting. Current Magazine wrote about Walls of Stone, "Dentel immediately splits your heart with dappled soul rays of his folk-gospel-blues voice, singular presence, and cleansing songcraft." Produced by Brian Delaney of the Ann Arbor based Royal Garden Trio, Walls of Stone is a collection of stories about love and spirit in a folk/gospel setting. Charlie Dentel is a dynamic performer who presents a diverse mix of original music and standards rooted in R&B and soul. Dentel performs with members of the Motor City Horns, with whom he has recently recorded a CD called Innocent Things. The new CD features powerful original songs with an intelligent and fresh soulful sound, filled up with exciting horn arrangements and smashing vocals. "Finesse was the operative word...as Dentel's voice piped like a gospel organ, carefully modulating his delivery, with wonderful treatments of ballads." Mark Ziemba, Current Magazine, Feb. 2001 "This guy is fantastic....His music is evocative, complex, tender and soulful." Todd Spencer, Current Magazine, Apr. 1997
