Power roots rock by perennial mid-atlantic favorite David Glaser. "Reunion is truly captivating." - Mary Bryan, Chesapeake Music Guide 15 MP3 Songs ROCK: Roots Rock, POP: Folk Pop Details: David Glaser is a singer / songwriter / guitarist based in Annapolis, MD. David plays frequently in the Baltimore - DC - Annapolis area as an acoustic solo act, or with one of his bands, including the David Glaser Band, and Van Dyke Glaser. He has also toured nationally as a guitarist with now defunct r&b act Starpoint, and with NYC indie rockers the Churchills. He currently tours with the Boston-based Push Stars, and NJ-based artist John Eddie as tour manager and sound engineer. For full bio and discography visit davidglaser.net. Reunion is David Glaser's 2nd solo CD featuring 12 new songs written by David, and 2 covers (one by Chris Trapper and one by the late Craig Carr). The recording was done in studios in Baltimore, Boston, and LA in the summer and fall of 2002, and was released in 2003. Co-produced by David Glaser, Dan McLoughlin (of the Push Stars) and Roni Santmyer (chief engineer, Big Bang Audio, Baltimore). Guest appearances by Dan McLoughlin and Chris Trapper of the Pushstars, Ron Haney and Bart Schoudel of the Churchills, and Bryan Ewald of Starbelly. Reunion is not a CD you'll readily tire of, as each time you listen, you will find yourself turning over something that you missed before - a new insight, a new story, or a new harmony, and it is always a joy. Simply put, Reunion is truly captivating. - Mary Bryan, Chesapeake Music Guide. Visit davidglaserfor more info.
