Frederic composes music that relaxes and empowers the soul. It transports you in the Realms of the Universe... A meditative healing music for the good of your Soul. 12 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: Healing, CLASSICAL: New Age Details: Frederic DELARUE / BIO + REVIEWS Frederic was born in Chartres (France). At 5, he starts to play the piano and knows that he wants to have a musical career. At 11, he gets involved in a terrible car accident and gets visions of the angels, of the beyond... and since then his life would never be the same any more. Each time he plays the piano, Frederic feels transported through Universes, which give the listener a feeling of well being, of natural healing, and traveling through other existing worlds... From 10 to 17, he gets various awards as a Pianist at the "Leopold-Bellan" (contest recognized by the National French Academy in France). At 19, Frederic enters the "Experimental School of Music" in Paris (only 11 students are admitted each year) and receives a Music Degree. After his studies, he works for "EMI France", "Vogue-Polygram", "Les Films du Rond-Point des Champs-Elysees" and for "AB Television" as a composer/mix sound-engineer. In 1984, Frederic began his Film composing career with a documentary called: "Rendez-vous a 8760M, Everest 86" by Serge Koenig followed by a documentary: "The crocodiles of Madagascar" and a short film: "Intimate Rape." In 1990, he joins SACEM (equivalent of BMI/ASCAP) as a Composer. In October 1999, Frederic relocates to Los Angeles to pursue new opportunities. Since then, he has donated a song to Real Music for their worldwide benefit album: "Cousteau's Dream" in association with artists as Vangelis, Yanni, Kenny G, Kitaro... He has also composed for several independent films as "Pelican's Will", "Electrolux" by Amy Rubin, "Duncan's Dilemma" by Rajeev Nirmalakhandan, "Hestia's Quandary" by Holly Wenger... Frederic also gets a 01 Immigration Visa thanks to his acceptance as a talented composer by the American Federation of Musicians. His life's work is "Your Name in Music", a unique healing modality that helps people heal themselves by listening to the musical vibrations contained in their name given at birth.
