This hot new band puts the soul back in west coast funk with there eclectic mix of hip-hop, funk and blues. The perfect party sound track. 10 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Alternative Hip Hop, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: "GHOST" . .represents. . .say what. . . GHOST's new ultra-funk sound is the straight out of St Louis rap of G. Rhymes with Mychael Bates' sounds of Brooklyn's mean streets on guitar...powered by the pure soul of J. D. Bass and the prodigy funk drums of gentleman, scholar, acrobat. . . "Poppin' fresh", Lyle D. plus the rabble rousing vocals of Paul Benshoof. In the midnight hour, they're laying down hot new cuts for their second album, "The Get Down", at their own production studio, Get Ghost Music. GHOST's dynamic performance has set L.A. ablaze in a string of sold out shows. L.A. has caught the funk fever of GHOST live at The Gig, The Viper Room, The Whiskey, The Key Club, Dragonfly, Club Aura, Club Lingerie and more. Touring up and down the California coast, GHOST has played out with White Star at San Francisco's famous Slim's, appeared with Guru at the legendary Troubador, lit up Palm Springs at The Kickstand and then returned to The Gig in Hollywood to play with The Wylde Bunch, Urban Family Dog and Getlicious. GHOST's first self-produced album "For Your Soul" includes their hit club jam "Naked", featured as the anthem in the movie "Sweet Potato Pie". Their tune "Rise Up" is in the film "Out on Parole". This album put the soul back in West Coast Funk. This eclectic mix of funk, soul and hip-hop scored a 9 out of 10 star review from Taxi for their single "Saturday Night", which also features The R.E.P.S. has earned them radio play on indie stations from San Fransico's K.P.O.O. FM to Austrailia's "Flavor in Ya Ear Show" on 88.1 FM. GHOST recently recieved an amazing review from Ben Nachman in L.A.'s Music Connection Magazine... "The perfect party sound track. From the moment they took the stage, Ghost were full-thottle, in-your-face reminder that funk is best when it's played loud, fast, and with relish. A spirited and engaging live band."
