Fresh interpretations of contemporary and standard jazz favorites with a couple of originals in the mix for good measure. Several selections feature Grammy Award winner Ernie Watts on tenor saxophone 12 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Crooners/Vocals, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: Vocals: Joe Catanio Drums: Paul Van Wageningen Acoustic bass and electric bass: Gary Brown Electric bass on track #4: Jerry Stucker Piano, electric piano and synthesized strings: Wayne Fettig Percussion: Roberto Quintana Back-up vocals: Sandy Griffith Tenor saxophone: Ernie Watts Guitar: Jerry Stucker California native Joe Catanio has been singing professionally even before he was old enough to drive a car. His musical journey through the San Francisco Bay Area brought his voice into contact with many of the Bay Area's premier jazz musicians including Dick Hindman (Richie Cole, Stan Getz), Mary Fettig (Stan Kenton, Flora Purim Airta Moreira) and Grammy Award winner Marc Russo (Yellow Jackets, Kenny Loggins, Doobie Bros.) to name a few. The songs on this album were carefully selected and arranged to reflect Joe's musical tastes and his straight ahead, smooth vocal delivery. The lyrics in each song mirror some of the most important moments in Joe's life, thus "Stories" (Stories of Joe's life experiences) is a natural album title. Joe is thrilled to have multiple Grammy winner Ernie Watts playing on four songs of this album, "Feel Like Makin' Love", "It Could Have Been", "Dindi" and "Too Marvelous For Words". Thank you Ernie!
