Roots rock reggae. music that moves your inner spirit with real meaning that makes you think as well as dance dance dance. 13 MP3 Songs WORLD: Reggae, EASY LISTENING: Crooners/Vocals Details: CHARLES "KEITH" HURLOCK - THE MAN AND HIS MUSIC Keith, as he wishes to be called, is a person that you couldn't help but to like when you first meet him. He has a look about him that shows that he likes everyone no matter their appearance, race or religion. He talks and acts like a very spiritual person which indeed he is. He was born in the parish of St. James, Jamaica on January 26, 1954. His family being musical gave him a talent very early in his life for music. Three prodigious brothers before him became his inspiration. His second album "Chain Reaction" provides a unique glimpse into his motivations, his outlook on life, thoughts, ideas and inspirations. Above all you realize you have met a man who is honest, respectful, caring and loving toward his fellow man. His music is the mirror of his soul. It comes from his heart and he wants everyone to feel it in theirs as he plays and sings. His music is his life and he wants to share it with everyone. When he plays the rhythm it makes people want to dance with the joy of living and freedom of expression. You seem to abandon the cares and fears of your life for the pure enjoyment of the moment as he sings and plays. Many people have had the pleasure of experiencing Keith and his music when he is on tour regularly in Washington D.C., New York, Connecticut, California, Virginia, North and South Carolina and in his home state of Florida. Keith intends to continue his tours and take his music and songs to everybody everywhere. Keith has an extensive career playing with many well known bands and people. Starting in 1972 Keith played bass guitar with Jamaica's top trumpet player Winston Turner. After six months Keith joined the CJ Williams band, playing the guitar, from Negril to Montego Bay. Two years later, after meeting Keith Porter, Ronnie Davis, Ray Smith, Lloyd Rickets and Devon Henry, the group "Future Generation" was formed. They performed at world famous clubs in Jamaica such as, "Yellow Bird" "Disco Inferno" and Witches Hideaway" to name a few. After two years with "Future Generation" the dissolved. Keith went back to Montego Bay where he played with another band for about three years. In December of 1979 Keith started his own band "Truth". He landed a contract with the renowned "Negril Beach Villa". Keith eventually started a band called Crossfire which was very successful playing in Jamaica and across the USA. Keith expanded his career by writing and singing his own music. His spirituality and experiences in life are the foundation on which his second album "Chain Reaction" was inspired. Keith has just completed a successful tour with the legendary "Third World Band" and has plans to continue more tours.
