...with a voice and lyrics to match the sweet strains of his guitar, Kevin could be Seattle's version of Jackson Browne." 12 MP3 Songs ROCK: Folk Rock, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: With a voice and lyrics to match the sweet strains of his guitar, Seattle's version of Jackson Browne, Kevin Jones' music is rhythmic and colorful. His lyrics are touching and very accessible. His shows have fans both dancing and listening with equally divided enthusiasm. His willingness to experiment with a variety of different acoustic guitars and odd tunings and always reaching for that invisible bass tone makes people wonder sometimes where the rest of the band is hiding. Whether solo or with as many as 9 pieces Kevin Jones is truly a Northwest treasure. Kevin is out performing in support of his soon to be released 4th CD (untitled) on Diversity Records Ltd. Kevin Jones works extensively as soloist and band leader (Kevin Jones Band), as a session player, and has composed music for film and video for corporate and independent projects. He is a founding member of the Northwest-based acoustic band "3 Track Mind". 3 Track appeared in the 1996 Academy Award nominated film Georgia as Mare Winningham's backing group. His latest solo release, Hester Street, feels like the work of a guy who's been there and done that, but who's still firing on all cylinders, always ready to lay down that next great track or write that next great song. Kevin performs mostly solo, duo and with The Kevin Jones Band but has shared stages with Roseanne Cash, John Hiatt, Bruce Cockburn, Joan Baez, The Laura Love Band, Marc Cohn, Michael Tomlinson, Catie Curtis, and various Northwest musicians which includes his former band "3 Track Mind", the Seattle-based band "Toast", former members of Ranch Romance, and Larry Murante, to name a few. From Seattle Weekly, columnist Roberta Cruger, reviewing Hester St. 1999.
