We felt a real need to release an album with positive and uplifting messages. The songs are meant to bring hope, joy and awareness to the listener. It has gospel, blues country influences and you'll hear the spiritual journey of Jim Alex through the 12 MP3 Songs BLUES: Acoustic Blues, GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel Details: BORDERERS BIO Multi-Award winning Scottish / Irish / Australian band The BordererS have been together for 11 years and released 7 albums, 4 EP's, 2 kids albums and been included on 14 compilation albums all around the world. The band remain independent, run their own record company and have sold 55,000 CD's DVD's to date. The BordererS have played at Womads in Australia UK, the Edinburgh Festival, toured Canada USA and have supported Tom Jones, Shane McGowan The Chieftains in Glasgow. Voted most popular act by the public at the major Australian Festivals. Here's what others have to say: "You've got a great band there" Phillip Noyce - Aussie / Hollywood Film Director. "You must be dead if you're not seen dancing at a BordererS gig" Jamie McKew - Port Fairy Festival Director "The rhythm guitarist is so handsome" Jim's Mum The much anticipated new album "Grace" from the BordererS is now available on theborderers.com.au The BordererS were in the studio for two years recording these songs and it marks a departure from the band's celtic / rock sound. The new album features original gospel songs with bluesy numbers followed by world music country sounds. Independent Australian bands like The Waifs, the John Butler Trio, and The Cat Empire are having phenomenal years, moving from obscurity to superstardom very rapidly. Enter another band, The BordererS..... Magdalena Ball compulsivereader The CD has only been on the market for a few months and already two of it's songs have been nominated for awards. The title track "Grace" was nominated as one of the top 5 songs in the Gospel / Christian category of the Musicoz Awards whilst "Keep the Light On" was in the top 3 of the Peace, Tolerance

Understanding Award at the Port Fairy Festival. The single for the country music market "The Dark Horse" is on high rotation on many of the regional national country music stations all around Australia (The album is sitting at number 5 in the Independent Country Music Charts) and the video is on Country Music Television via FOXTEL.. Finally, you may see the Borderers at the ARIA Awards as their new album "Grace" is being nominated for an ARIA for Best Independent Release. Jim Alex Voted Best World Music Act At the Musicoz Awards!
