

Mp3 The Jesus Trip - The Morning Star

They are self proclaimed "Lo-Fi Sh.trockers". Bottled Rag thinks they're PUNK, ELECTRONICA, NO WAVE. 16 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Experimental, ROCK: Punk Details: This is a band that you will LOVE to hate! They are noisy and immature and call their brand of music "SH!TROCK." BLAH BLAH BLAH. The band started when two of the members met in a mental hospital back in 1998. They recorded a live song for Bottled Rag Records in 1999, but wasn't released until 2003 for whatever reason. You can find that song on the Bottled Rag Records comp entitled "Light the Rag, Throw the Bottle." 2004 found the band in a more productive direction releasing a CD and a 7 inch with a tour in the summer. The 2005 release "The Morning Star" shows the band going in all different directions, but falls together nicely. If you ever get the chance to see The Jesus Trip live don't miss them. It's an experience! They hope to "see ya all on the jesus trip." -Artie (Bottled Rag Records)
