Details: Like a breath of fresh air, Tonisha Weavers voice and presence create an instantly unforgettable sound as more and more people learn about this new pop music princess. Already an accomplished actress, dancer and model, Tonisha is also a gifted vocalist, songwriter and musician, and is looking to create a big buzz with her new sound. Although she is young, she is already a veteran vocalist and performer. The daughter of two acclaimed musicians/composers (David and Georgeann Weaver), she began her passion at the amazing age of 2 when she recorded a tape for Christmas, performing a duet with her mom and telling stories. She soon blossomed into performing in public, singing with the Tucson Girls Choir at age 7 and continuing regular performances at school and church. She also was noted for her vocal performance of the National Anthem at a Sidewinders game in Tucson She is also a musician, having played violin at age 3 and piano for most of her life, she also began to learn guitar at age 10. Tonisha will also perform musically on her upcoming EP. Since moving to Los Angeles, Tonisha has begun to attract a lot of interest as an actor, having appeared on Lincoln Heights, Everybody Hates Chris, "Hannah Montana" and national commercials.
