Touie's characteristics are those of the pioneering Outkast crossed with the intellect of Scarface. Touie is truly creating a following in this industry with his Kut Throat, diligent and unbreakable poise to achieve excellence. His image is a gangsta with class, while his impact is heavy hearted and raw. Touie Davis was born and raised on the midwestern streets of Dayton, Ohio until he moved to Marietta, Georgia where he graduated from Oakwood High School. Touie found himself involved in everything from From GANG BANG'N TO SELL'N DOPE 2 SELL'N SEX ROB'N FOLK. Touie's path eventually brought him to finding God and changing his life. As Touie began to look at life in a more serious manner things began to happen and life began to change. From an early age Touie was surrounded by music and now he uses his past to influence the future. He focuses on issues concerning money, gangs, children, women, and politics. While evaluating his experiences in life,Touie found one of his purposes in life to be influencing and elevating audiences of all kinds through music. In 1997, in collaboration with Big B Entertainment and long time producer Brian Tims. Touie released his first solo album titled 'Saved Gangsta' featuring 'Father's Love', 'Life's Realities', and 'Take U 4 A Ride'. Word on the street was that these songs shook up the underground world stopping it's pulse in awe! Touie has started his own label, Tyziq Life Music, and finished up his second album titled 'My Eyes R Open'. Touie's accomplishments range from concerts to theater and sporting events to television appearances. He has appeared on a long list of shows including BET.s Rap City, Jenny Jones, Atlanta Live, T.V. 57, Rick Party.s (V103) Theme Song, and Atlanta Falcons Super Bowl Song. The list could go on and on but it doesn't matter if he entertains at Six Flags or your high school he always gives everything he's got.
