Music is defined as thoughts expressed through tones. Easy Acoustic Folk/Rock/Blues, songs to comfort and give peace morning noon or night,,,,,, 12 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Bay Area Performing Songwriter Tricia Greenwood recently received the honor of being named Finalist, by the Song of the Year (songoftheyear.com) songwriting contest. Song of the Year is an international songwriting contest supporting VH-1's Save the Music Foundation. The Song of the Year judges are some of the biggest names in music including many Grammy Award winners. Song of the Year is excited to recognize Tricia for her exceptional songwriting ability for the song "In Heaven 9.11" Tricia competed against songwriters from all over the world for this honor. When asked what inspired the song Tricia commented that she wrote this comforting song to empathize with those left behind from 9.11 and in the aftermath of tragedies claiming innocent lives. Currently Tricia is concentrating on her music career while planning a tour with her current album, "No Fear In Love" and her upcoming album to be released in 2006. "I am so excited to be chosen as a finalist for my special song, "In Heaven 9.11". said independent artist Tricia Greenwood. "It is my dream to sing this song by satellite to the whole world in a memorial event someday".  A CD filled with songs of Love Be inspired with courage and freedom to get your life back and fill your mind with more peace.... great to listen to when emotions are riding high and life seem to be too much to handle..... A note from Tricia..... "As this Country survives the natural and man made disasters resulting in loss of lives of loved ones, my prayers are with you all..... I believe my music was brought through me to be sounds of recovery for greiving hearts. People recovering from loss of Spouses, Brothers, Sisters, Children and Parents. People overcoming addictions and wanting healing. Please help me help others and give this music as a gift to someone you know going through difficult times. Thank you from the bottom of my heart." "Art and Music are not competitive, but a celebration of our gifts" Love, Tricia Greenwood It's what you do that can make a difference..... We are not taught Freedom from Sorrow..... We are taught Freedom through Sorrow....  ALL

 Tricia's original music ranges from deep and rhythmic folk to a smooth edged, percussive easy rock, blues and some gospel. Her vocal presence is one of essence and honesty. The past, present and future transcend with emotions filled with the power of love.

No Fear In Love has already touched the hearts of thousands, and has been aired on Radio Stations from Los Angeles to Belgium. The song "True Love," inspired by a thunderstorm and written around the line. "Your pendulum swings from denial to pretend", has a hint of jazzy overtones, Tricia believes we must love for the right reasons and not the wrong ones or else love will be destroyed, sooner or later. The song "Francine" was written for Tricia's sister, Francine after having been separated for 10 years without a word.....by relatives beyond Tricia's control after her parents passed away as a teenager....Francine was only 9 years old.....and was kept away for reasons of greed and betrayal by the relatives. Tricia has an endearing story she tells before performing it., and is writing a screenplay to tell the true stories.

----- IN Heaven 9.11 - song review - In the year 2000, Tricia's friend/musician, Chris Dennison died of cancer after years of struggle with a positive attitude to live. She wrote the song "In Heaven" for his memorial service. Tricia had given a copy to his family members as a token of love. Throughout the year after, the family sent her cards and letters thanking her for the song that was helping to comfort them and wrote how they would listen to it everyday. On September 11th , 2001 - Hearts all over the world were broken in millions of pieces from the unbearable tragedy. Tricia, having survived sudden and tragic loss of many loved ones herself , including both her parents, as a teenager, with the feelings of loss and isolation, she and her 3 brothers and sister experienced. Three weeks into the search for life beneath the rubble of the towers brought Tricia to her knees. Her heart wanting to reach out to the people left behind with no hope. Tricia wanted to give them something that would remind others not to stay away from them hurting, but to be there for them, to help endure the loss. Tricia awoke one night with the revelation that, if the song she wrote for Chris could help a few people it might even help more. So she re-wrote the song to hopefully comfort hearts around the world. Realizing that through the endurance of trials and holding onto the belief that, (when loss and struggles happen, we must be there for each other and reach out to others in their sorrow) 9/11 produced a burning desire in her heart to reach out to others by giving away over 400 copies she made at home herself to people who lost loved ones. Tricia got an email from Jenny thanking her for the CD and even asking her to perform at the memorial service. Jenny lost her brother James, in the second tower, after he had made it out alive from the first tower that went down, James wanted to save his sister who worked in the second tower before it crashed, he didn't live to know she had made it out alive. With inspiration and perseverance, Tricia wrote more songs about love and relationships mending in the next 6 months and recorded her music with the help of Matt Pinson, Zen By Numbers Studio, (engineer/producer/musician) making this CD. a reality No Fear In Love - Album review With songs that help to soothe emotions and comfort, and over time. it's almost like walking over a bridge, that dissappears..... a threshold to a healing heart. A Community Event in Memory of Sept. 11th For Tricia's CD release party, September 11th, 2003, at BJ's of Cupertino, right next to Apple Computer, The Chamber of Commerce of Sunnyvale and the Chamber for Cupertino, promoted the event for Tricia. Dean Markley (Dean Markley Guitars and accessories) and his wife, Wendy attended, Russell Bond of the Music Annex and Mind Lab in Menlo Park, CA, along with other local entertainers, Teddy Randazzo Jr. and Ron Short, Elvis Live impersonator, ended the event with the song "IF I Can Dream" with everyone contributing with their attendance and promotion resulted in a worthy and successful event. Tricia gave a percentage of sales to the Salvation Army.and will continue to help as they continue their ongoing efforts of medical supplies and food for our soldiers fighting for our freedom. Here is the letter from them: The Salvation Army is honored to join with Tricia in praising her new CD "No Fear In Love". Truly it is love that removes the fear in peoples lives. Love allows them to work together and accomplish great things for God and man. The Salvation Army is also honored that Tricia has announced that a portion of the price of all CDs sold will be donated to The Salvation Army. The poor of Silicon Valley have already benefited from Tricia's generosity once. We are thrilled to be honored again by this special artist. Major Kenneth Hood Commanding Officer The Salvation Army Silicon Valley "No Fear In Love" with 12 songs, the first 9 songs are Tricia on vocals and guitar. The 10th song is "In Heaven 9.11" with James Robinson who has been signed with Steve Via on his record label. LeeLee Stone sings harmony with Tricia to beautifully end this heart touching song. The 11th song is "In Heaven 9.11 Instrumental" again James Robinson and introducing Matt Pinson, with a stellar performance on progressive lead guitar throughout the song. The 12th song is an original composition by Matt Pinson titled, "Frozen Time" which exemplifies Matt's feelings, that on that day....for many.....time stood still. In completing this album, the last three songs are a trilogy of music dedicated to September 11th.  (NOTE) "No Fear In Love is the title song of this album..... We cannot truly love unless we overcome the fear of being who we really are - feeling what we feel and being honest, being transparent does not equate being perfect but imperfect.....

_____ No Fear In Love There's no fear.... I can see myself In your eyes It's like they hypnotize You pull me in There's only one chance to take Time has a way To reveal the magic that breaks Thru changes we make We may be light years apart But not when it comes to the heart A love like a fire Burnin deep within Filled with warm desire Pure and infinite There's no fear No fear in love Have no fear Only believe _____ "The freedom we need within does not come from without But from inside ourselves" TG _____ Francine Her heart breaks when she thinks of her youth She never knew the truth Her heart breaks when she thinks of those years Her eyes blind with tears How could her family leave her alone They could not have known How she hurt in so many ways She counted the days - to be eighteen - to be free- Freedom wasn't easy to find In a world so unkind She reached out to end her despair In a prayer - to be free - inside She turned from loneliness to .God's holiness to be free...inside from the pain from the blame from the shame She's free- inside

_____ Beyond Time I wait and wonder Where you might be I imagine your kiss In a fantasy Until I see you in the light I'll dream about you every night Of your touch - your kiss - your love In a world beyond time You're eyes entranced me You're love romanced me You're kiss enchanted me Ohhhhhhhhhhh..... I watch the sunset And clouds go by I imagine you here You're hand in mine Until I see you in the light I'll dream about you every night Of your touch - your kiss - your love In a world beyond time _____

_____ True Love Thought I found true love When I found you Thought I found true love When I married you Awakened by thunder Alone in my bed I lay awake and wonder about what's ahead Your pendulum swings From denial to pretend I...do... is more than a ring It protects and defends I'm talkin' about love Talkin' bout true love I'm talkin' bout' true love It's less confusing Once you understand Destiny is by choice Not by chance I'm talkin' about love Talkin' bout true love I'm talkin' bout' true love _____

_____ Can You Hear Me Some times the past haunts my mind Sometimes I want to cross the line That's when I want to run away Instead I stop, I turn and pray to you God, can you hear me Will you ease this heart of mine It feels like it's breaking Show me a sign I need you more than ever I surrender all control Take away these feelings Deep inside my soul Your peace flows like a river Your glory fills this place You wash away my fear With your sweet embrace You reach down from heaven When I reach to the sky I know you hear me I can feel your peace flow thru me

_____ Adams Song He was born a twin by his brothers side Adam learned to compromise His gentle soul with an independent cry Tryin to sort out love from pride] When he grew older he left his home He searched for his father on his own A miracle happened, an angel heard his cry He found a way to justify One San Francisco afternoon At an Italian restaurant With bread and wine His father told him why After he met Adams Bride How love takes time Love takes time For the loss and pain For the wind and rain To wash away the tears To forgive the years Love takes time to mend _____ (

_____ Another Love You'll find another love Someone meant to be You'll find another love You 've just got to believe There's someone special Sweet and warm and true Like your Momma told ya Don't think this is it for you I know you heart is breaking still I see it in your eyes It's gonna take some time to heal With a heart as big as the sky You'll find another love You just wait and see You'll find another love You've just got to believe You'll find another love Another love ..... _____ (NOTE "My reflection of Psalm 91 along with my love for sitting by the ocean" _____ Your Angels Lookin over the ocean Staring at the sky Wishing and wondering If I could fly Wishing and wondering If I could fly You're my refuge You shield my soul You command your angels Wherever I go I'm with your angels One night in a dream You dressed me all in white You took me by the hand So we could fly You're my refuge You shield my soul You command your angels Wherever I go I'm with your angels Ooh your angels _____ .

_____ Real Love Never Dies I'd know you're voice anywhere, did you ever know.... You were my desire Lookin out my window From across the street Hoping to see you outside Combing thru your hair Out in the sunlight I didn't know, I had a chance To be loved by someone like you A few years later - my graduation Moments I'll never forget How you looked at me Ya held me so tight I knew right then, I could love you forever Somehow circumstance Stole the right Took time to heal All my fears By grace heaven sent There's no reason, Left to pretend Cause my love for you Is still there Maybe someday this love will transcend Real love never dies, Sometimes it hides Like a burning ember in a fire It only takes a sigh to ignite
