Beautiful songs, intimate vocals, gorgeous acoustic guitar, all performed live in the studio with no overdubs and recorded to perfection. 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Blues, BLUES: Acoustic Blues Details: Before you ask the question Ace is no nickname, AKA or for that matter stage-name. Born on the auspicious and inspirational date of 11/11/88 in the City of Angels and raised in a peripatetic music business family he traveled his early years from one global recording center to another accompanying his legendary record-producer father Richard James Burgess and his stunningly beautiful mother, Constance, co-owner of one of the influential and earliest NYC hip-hop labels Emergency Records. When the school years came the family settled in London, birthplace of his father and younger brother Blaze, but in the nineties, before radio died, music inexorably pulled the family back to the US, this time the east coast. Ace did his homework whilst listening to the cut and thrust of management, agency and record business babble and the nights were alive with listening, arguing, debating and hard core jamming in the family music space. This is no silver spoon story, this is the music business the old, hard way, love your instrument, learn great songs, listen, listen, listen. Jam from beginning to end, all together now, make a mistake, start again, no punch-ins no overdubs and finally, fingers throbbing, muscles and brain screaming to complain - something beautiful emerges. This is the new music business, the DIY, musicians take charge music business and nobody is better equipped than Ace.
