the first track from "WaterSound The Album" is set to be on a major television series, more info to follow. Watersound is a Stunning Self Produced release, fusing electronic/Art Pop with a Classic Rock Voice. Intelligent Messages, WaterSound Delivers Lov 11 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Pop Crossover, SPOKEN WORD: With Music Details: WaterSound Dive into the genre crossing depths of electronic events highlighted with a brilliant lyrical light. From the beginning, the tender arrangement of "Angel of Flight" leaps us into the emotional air and provides a soft cushiony landing. "The earth is so soft with you, on the surface, you gave me courage". An Electronic symphony with a baby grand piano is the soul, and the haunting vocals of a romanticist, is the flowing water. This is just the start of a ride through some alternative pop, electronic rock and finale' spoken word piece. Maverick Records A&R (home of Alanis and Madonna) gave the lyrics to Watersound, "A Ten". "The Good Girl" 12 string guitar work dawns another unique delivery of a message: single mothers raising fine children, under a more Americana/electronic setting. Now, its off to "California Twelve" where you are in a time machine, "After all, It's still yesterday" on the east coast, and we can still make up, without letting a day pass by. "We're Home" an electronic epic about seeing your past love from when your childhood which has been compared to Kraftwerk and Pink Floyd. The album is full of surprises, many emotions, many places to go. You will find yourself within the lyrics and experience things which you may not want to in real life. "Delusional" Voted as "The #1 most bitter breakup song of all-time" Spoken word Genre Garageband.com. You will laugh, you will cry. There is a creepy song too. One reviewer said "Its like falling down the stairs, and I like that!". "You broke Skin, will it heal or go further in? Its all fun, until you hurt someone, again. You Broke Skin." Like watching a scary movie about a relationship gone bad. Scary. "Watersound" is the name of the one man band and "WaterSound" is a memorable and intelligent spoken word piece with pop classical flair. "Watersound" is timeless, at the top of the charts in Garageband.com, the many awards include #3 male vocals of all-time. #2 keyboards of all-time. Featured on Internet radio across the world, this song is about the deepest love a person could have. "What if I could put you in a word?" the lyrics are engaging, transforming to a different way of thinking... Enjoy the many sounds, textures and "Little things" throughout. All of the instruments and Vocal's are the work of Cliff Paris, WaterSound. The Piano, Drums, Guitars and Vocal comparisons and influences are Peter Gabriel, Roger Waters, David Bowie, David Gray and Tom waits.
