

Mp3 Doug Jamieson - Country Matters

DOWNLOAD HERE

Fresh countrified and rootsy songs with a kick of rock and blues, a touch of humour and a little music theatre. 12 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Modern Country, POP: Folky Pop Details: "Country Matters A hard thing for city folk to understand Country Matters There's more than a highway cutting through the land Shortest way from here to there Maybe ain't the way that you need And things keep cropping up Because we plant the seed Country Matters indeed" This CD is an assortment of 12 roots and blues tunes. The songs deal with a wide range of emotions and situations - from the sublime to the ridiculous. There are love songs, lack-of-love songs, unrequited love songs, kiss-off songs, and a pair of songs which tell the same story from two perspectives. All piano parts, arranging sequencing by Doug Jamieson. The CD was recorded in Eden Mills, Ontario in 2004-2005, using Logic Platinum for Windows on a Pentium III. Any digital media used is primarily from Drums on Demand. The songs were mixed by Doug Jamieson and mastered by J. Richard Hutt of Cedartree Studio (519-748-5810), Kitchener, Ontario. Brief Bio: Canadian songwriter-singer Doug Jamieson is equally at home in popular and classical idioms. He has been an Associate Composer of the Canadian Music Centre since 1984. He is the Winner of 8 Ontario Arts Council commissions and 2 Canada Council commissions. His guitar solo Elegy was a First Prizewinner in an international festival. In addition, Doug has scored music for 9 films and videos and 3 theatrical productions. Since 1996, Jamieson has focused primarily upon popular music and musical theatre projects. He has written incidental music for two Shakespearean plays, the story, book and music for a musical entitled Fastlane, and the libretto and score for a nearly-completed opera Jorinda. His personal website can be found at dougjam.ca.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: