Details: After recording Just 5's EP "Songs to Help You Cope" with producer Scott Zarific from Nashville, TN in 2008, group member Gary Michael Turner began work with Zarific on his debut solo project. It began as a creative outlet for Turner while the group began work on the next Just 5 album, but what came out of the recording sessions was something that he never expected: A new sound and an outlet to express his creativity. "Silent Love Affair" is the debut single from Turner's forthcoming album, and already has some internet buzz going about the sexy club vibe of this new sound he has found. Collaborating with Nashville based artist Brandon E, Turner and Zarific have created a track that's both sexy and stylish, and is sure to get people to their feet on the dance floor.
