The dramatic musical depicting the life of famous Spanish Dancer and the last great courtesan Caroline Otero. 17 MP3 Songs LATIN: General, ROCK: Acoustic Details: One of the most celebrated figures in France between 1889 and 1914 her sensual onstage performances received worldwide acclaim throughout La Belle Epoque. The provocative lyrics and classical music capture the spirit of the era and the heart of the artist. The project is complimented with a stunning twenty four page story/lyric booklet. I was fascinated by a newspaper article just after Caroline Otero passed away penniless at the age of 93. She had amassed and lost several fortunes during her lifetime, a number of infatuated men suicided in frustration of not being able to keep hold of the beautiful gypsy. But true to her style in her last interview she proclaimed, "All of my life I have been a slave to my passions but a slave to no man". Thank you for listening, John Loughman
