POP: Beatles-pop, ELECTRONIC: Dance Details: Michael Boren Williams began writing music at the age of two. By the age of 14, he had written over 25,000 songs and had lived in 73 cities around the world. He studied with Andres Segovia, Manitas de Plata and many other virtuosos. He earned the nickname "Ghostwriter" by being a ghostwriter to the superstars for decades. His CDs include a wide range of styles and instruments. His music must be heard. It is constantly changing and improving as he travels the world (and the universe) searching for new sounds Once you hear it, you will immediately become his fan forever. A free CD of his "Flesh and Blood" video recorded in locations around the world comes with every music CD by Michael Boren Williams that you purchase. This exciting video gives a never been seen look into the multi-locational recording system developed by Michael. You will watch in awe as the camera quickly jumps from talented, sometimes famous musicians backing up Michael from Stockholm to London, Sydney to Berne and many other exotic locations. You will watch such world-class musicians as Liberty Devito, drummer of the Billy Joel Band, backing Michael up in a Florida recording studio and pan to Michael singing and wailing away on his guitar in a high-tech recording studio in Switzerland.
