Details: A while back I was trading slide guitar licks with Ray Wylie Hubbard live on the radio and thinking, How cool is this? Mattson Rainer of KNBT, the top-rated Americana station in the country, had called earlier in the week and asked me to play on their Roots and Branches of Americana show. So there I was, doing what I love to do bestplay music. I know it may sound hokey to some but its the whole point of me being here. Its one of the few times I can become totally lost in the moment. It feeds my soul. Now, I cant say I havent gotten side tracked from the dream of making music my calling in life, because Ive definitely had a few detours on the road to mega stardom. I worked as an electrician and appliance repairman. Ive been married and divorced. Ive made some really bad choices and lived through the consequences. Ive had a few disappointments and a few triumphs. Ive lived the school of hard knocks. Surprisingly all of those tangents, missteps and real life have shaped my song writing and music in ways I couldnt have imagined at the time. My first CD, Ive Been Around, charted 38 on AmericanaDolly Parton gently nudged me off. Ive opened for Jerry Jeff Walker, Gary P. Nunn, Charlie Robison and Ruthie Foster. Ive played Gruene Hall and appeared on Mattson Rainers Crossroads Americana numerous times. The old Humbletime radio show featured me as their guest artist. And, as I started off saying, I got to trade slide licks with Ray Wylie. I play bottleneck slide and finger-style acoustic guitar. A little contemporary folk. A little blues. A little country. And unlikely combinations, like Phillip Glass meets ska. So if you just want to sit back and laugh a little, remember what you tried to forget, or just groove to the blues, check out my calendar. Stop by. Pull up a chair and be a part of what I love to do bestplay music.
